MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Instructions for Re-writing Army Regulation 10-87

1. (U) REFERENCES:

a. (U) HQ, Dept of the Army Regulation 10-87, (Major Commands in the Continental United States), dated 30 Oct 1992.

b. (U) EOH Forum for Decision Point 58, 14 Dec 05.

2. (U) Purpose: Provide instructions for the rewrite of AR 10-87 and set the stage for pending instructions to rewrite related General Orders that reflect the directed realignment of the current Army headquarters resulting from Decision Point (DP) 58 of the Army Campaign Plan. Further, this also serves as a request for a primary POC from your organization.

3. (U) The Secretary of the Army and Chief of Staff, Army have directed the realignment of the current Army headquarters, Major Army Commands (MACOM), Field Operating Agencies (FOA) and Staff Supporting Agencies (SSA) to transform the Army into a more agile and adaptable service. The following decisions have been approved:

a. (U) Army Command – An Army force, designated by the Secretary of the Army, performing multiple Army Service Title 10 functions (3013b) across multiple disciplines. Command responsibilities are those established by the Secretary and normally associated with administrative control (ADCON).

b. (U) Army Service Component Command (ASCC) – An Army force, designated by the Secretary of the Army, comprised primarily of operational organizations serving as an Army component for a combatant commander. If designated by the combatant commander, serves as a Joint Forces Land Component Command (JFLCC), or Joint Task Force (JTF). Command responsibilities are those established by the Secretary and normally associated with operational control (OPCON) and administrative control (ADCON).

c. (U) Direct Reporting Unit (DRU) – An Army organization comprised of one or more units with institutional or operational functions, designated by the Secretary of the Army, providing broad general support to the Army in a normally single, unique discipline not otherwise available elsewhere in the Army. Direct Reporting Units report directly to a Headquarters, Department of the Army principal and /or Army Command and operate under authorities established by the Secretary of the Army.

d. (U) Field Operating Agency (FOA) – An agency under the supervision of Headquarters, Department of the Army, but not an Army Command, ASCC, or DRU which has the primary mission of executing policy.

e. (U) Staff Supporting Agency (SSA) -An organization which exists primarily to assist the headquarters to which it reports. Staff support agencies assist in the formulation of policies and procedures or provide the necessary administrative and /or logistical support and would not exist in the absence of the headquarters to which it reports.

4. (U) The following Army headquarters are redesignated as Army Commands, ASCCs, and DRUs:

a. (U) Army Commands: Forces Command (FORSCOM), Training and Doctrine Command (TRADOC) and Army Materiel Command (AMC).

b. (U) Army Service Component Commands: Army Europe, Army Central, Army North, Army South, Army Pacific, United States Army Special Operations Command (USASOC), Surface Deployment and Distribution Command (SDDC), Space and Missile Defense Command (SMDC) and Eighth United States Army (EUSA).

c. (U) Direct Reporting Units: Network Enterprise Technology Command (NETCOM, Medical Command (MEDCOM), Intelligence and Security Command (INSCOM), Criminal Investigation Division Command (CIDC), United States Army Corps of Engineers (USACE), Military District of Washington (MDW), Army Test and Evaluation Command (ATEC), United States Military Academy (USMA), United States Army Reserve Command (USARC), Acquisition Support Command (ASC), and Installation Management Agency (IMA).

5. (U) Re-write Instructions.

a. (U) All organizations referenced in paragraph 4 of this memo, must be prepared to either update their existing or generate a new General Order (GO) establishing their organization and imbuing it with appropriate levels of authority and responsibility. A separate memorandum of instruction (MOI) is forthcoming relating to update of GO's and any associated regulations. Update of those two policy-type documents are the responsibility of each organization.

b. (U) Organizations must now provide input to a new AR 10-87 and specify exactly how they will accomplish their assigned mission using those same responsibilities and authorities. Instructions for accomplishing this task is enclosed. Because of the time phased implementation of conversion to new designs described in the Army Campaign Plan:

(1) Army South will be a two phased effort. Phase I will update their GO establishing themselves as a separate entity but under the existing ASCC design effective 1 Oct 06. Phase II will be their transition to the new (formerly UEy) design effective in FY 08.

(2) Army Europe and Army Pacific must staff their General Orders six months prior to the effective date of modular transformation in accordance with the Army Campaign Plan. AR 10-87 will record the current roles and responsibilities of the commands.

(3) Army Central and Army North will receive an effective date upon publication of the GO.

Enclosure: Instructions for editing and first draft submission of AR 10-87

1. OIAA, G-315/7, provided copies of AR 10-87 on 10 November 2005 to each organizational POC (each organization should have only one POC per submission) to begin the revision of current chapters, or first drafts for new chapters. The electronic files are included with this staffing to make certain you have all the files necessary to accomplish the revisions and/or additions.
2. When making revisions, insure that the "track changes" option is enabled in Microsoft Word. Tracked changes should remain with your document when it is returned to G-3/5/7. If your input is a new document that did not exist in the previous version of AR 10-87 at all, e.g., a new chapter, you do not need to have the "track changes" enabled.
3. While revising your document, please ensure all regulations cited are current.
4. Submit your revised document electronically and include in the following additional information:
 - a. List related publications. Your required publications (those necessary to understand the publication) will be retrieved and documented in the Appendix Section, but you may also have "related publications" that need to be listed. Related publications refers to a source of additional information. The reader does not have to read a related publication to understand the publication.
 - b. List any possible publications that may be impacted by the revisions to AR 10-87; e.g., publications that may need to be rescinded or superseded.
5. After G-315/7 reviews and approves content changes, the document (file) will be submitted to the Office of the Director of the Army Staff for format review/changes and compiling into a "final draft" document.
6. Once the "final draft" has been created it will be re-staffed to you with new instructions and this will be your opportunity to review the entire document and submit any changes. The suspense date for submission of the 2nd review is scheduled for 29 Mar 06.
7. Suspense dates:
 - a. 27 January 2006 -Submit initial input to AR 10-87 from commands and organizations.
 - b. 20 February 2006 -Staff first draft of AR 10-87 to HQDA and all in Para #4
 - c. 20 March 2006 -Submit first draft comments.
 - d. 7 Apr 2006 -Final staffing of AR 10-87 to only specific POCs at HQDA.
 - e. 15 May 2006 -Publish AR 10-87.
